

Hidden History: Understanding the Origins of Racial Inequity

Emancipation Proclamation through Post Reconstruction: 1863 – 1900s

May 11, 2021, 7 p.m. ET

In collaboration with Lake Michigan College, Spectrum Health Lakeland will host three online panel discussions framed by the notion that many people are not aware of the legacy of slavery, the Civil War, Reconstruction, and post-Reconstruction events. Picking up where the first panel left off, this event will feature a discussion of the aftermath of the Civil War including the failure of Reconstruction, Jim Crow, and how incidents and policies of that era reverberate today.

Moderator

Brian Conybeare
Journalist/Anchor
ABC57

Panelists

Christopher Everett
Documentary Filmmaker and Communications Manager
Duke University

J. William Harris, PhD
Professor Emeritus
University of New Hampshire

Kate Masur, PhD
Associate Professor
Northwestern University